FUN RUN UPDATE! Thank you to everyone for your generosity in our first two weeks of donations! We are at 91% school participation (WOW!!) and the donations came in so quickly that our t-shirt screener had a hard time keeping up with us! Thank you to everyone that has been patient while we wait for the second batch of t-shirts to be ready – per our screener, if you have donated and are waiting on a shirt, they will be going home with students on October 7th at the latest! Shout out to the entire 1st Grade as well as Mrs. Ammon's Pre-K Class for having 100% participation! Right now, 1st Grade has the overall lead in the class competition, but it's a CLOSE race – any grade could take the lead! Be sure to register with your first donation by tomorrow (Friday, October 7th) to be guaranteed a t-shirt for Fun Run Day. Fun Run T-shirt days are October 7th, 14th, 21st, 28th, and 31st. As a reminder, donations can be made by cash or check made out to St. Jude Home & School and returned to school through the Fun Run envelope multiple times as well as online by clicking here: <https://event.auctria.com/84c3c30c-4439-4f95-bd5e-d2d94e7e7810/>

FOOTBALL: The 3rd and 4th grade Cougar football team put up another impressive showing against the St. Aloysius 3rd grade Lion team this past Sunday. Once again, our crew of 14 matched up against the 25 member Lion team and kept pace the entire game, giving up only one big play for a touchdown. The Cougar offense responded right away though with impressive blocking that allowed Jordy Partin to break off a huge 70 yard run for a touchdown! The entire team played their hearts out once again, and will do the same this Sunday against the All-Star Football Team, 2:30 PM at the St. Jude Field. Please come out and support!
